Fenchurch Runner Up for 'Independent Corporate Finance House of the Year'

Fenchurch Advisory Partners has been named runner up for 'Independent Corporate Finance House of the Year' at the Acquisitions Monthly Awards 2006, which recognise excellence in the global M&A sector.

The awards ceremony was attended by around 600 senior professionals from leading corporates, investment banks, brokerages, private equity houses and law firms. The winners were decided by public vote and extensive research by Acquisitions Monthly's editorial team.
